FREE BOBBY & ERICKA!

Bobby Seale, Chairman of the Black Panther Party and Ericka Huggins, Deputy Chairman of the Connecticut Branch of the Black Panther Party are being held as prisoners of war by the United States government in New Haven, Connecticut. They are charged with conspiracy (thinking about) to murder a member of their own organization. A kangaroo court is trying them and they face the electric chair. We know what kind of trial they are getting. We saw what kind of trial Bobby had in Chicago. He was gagged and bound in the courtroom, beaten and tortured in jail. In New Haven, Bobby and Ericka are being denied every human right that is guaranteed to prisoners of war under the rules of the Geneva Convention. They are denied medical attention, food, sanitary conditions, exercise, etc.

Nixon and his pig flunkies fill up their fascist newspapers with lies about the U.S. prisoners of war being held by the Vietnamese. These prisoners in North Vietnam are mostly pilots shot down while bombing and napalming villages in North Vietnam. But the Vietnamese haven't responded to barbarism with more barbarism. The Vietnamese have released the names of the prisoners, allowed them to correspond with their families, and even sent movies here to prove that they are in good physical shape. But Nixon keeps lying and he won't talk about the prisoners of war right here. All Nixon can say is oink.

They make a big deal out of the two Jews sentenced to death in Russia. The newspapers and government officials say that this is terrible. Well, it is terrible and it shows that there are pigs in Russia. But how the hell can Nixon protest death sentences in Russia when Chairman Bobby and Sister Ericka face the electric chair in Connecticut and Chip Fitzgerald has already been sentenced to the gas chamber in California.

Then they talk about Poland. The Polish workers rioted against increased food prices. The workers rioted and the head of the country was thrown out. Right On! But the pig media makes it sound like there's never been a riot in America. And as if food in America is getting cheaper all the time. Oink.

The fascists keep lying and whenever they get caught they make the lie bigger. They are trying to murder Bobby and Ericka the way they murdered Chairman Fred Hampton. This time they're going slow and trying to make it look legal. They think that we will forget about Bobby and Ericka.

But the pigs don't understand. We never forget about those that we love. And we love Bobby. We love Ericka. We always think of Bobby and Ericka. When a hungry child is fed by the Panther free breakfast program, we think of Chairman Bobby. Because Chairman Bobby is the father of the breakfast for children program. When we see oppressed people get medical care in any of the revolutionary medical centers we are reminded of our love for Chairman Bobby. Because Chairman Bobby is the father of the free medical centers. When the Rising Up Angry legal clinic helps a lumpen brother or sister fight the fascist courts, we know that we wouldn't be doing this if not for the inspiration of Chairman Bobby. The free buses that drive people to the prisons to visit their relatives are driven by the revolutionary inspiration of Chairman Bobby. For this, and much more, we love our revolutionary comrades Bobby Seale and Ericka Huggins.

Bobby and Ericka will be set free!

WELCOME TO SCHOOL, SONNY

One of the most hypocritical institutœons in the world is the catholic church. If you think that's an exaggeration check it out. They own more slum housing in Chicago than anyone else and that's just Chicago, not even counting the multi-billion dollar empire of the Vatican which has stock in everything from slum housing to birth con--trol pills. These low down dirty pigs rap their shit about how catholics can't use the pill, but invest money in it themselves.

A lot of you sisters and brothers out there think you're hustlers, that you're pretty slick, but you ain't shit compared to a priest, let alone the pope! Dig the setup priests have: they have slave labor come in and make their meals, wash their dishes, make their beds and have a new car or one that's no more than one or two years old. They get all this for rapping a lot of bullshit about being good and holy and how the church is falling apart and we need more money.

I got hip to their shit a long time ago. When they said how we should forgive those who did evil to us, love our ene--mies and treat others the way you would want them to treat you. But them goofy chumps never even pretended or tried to follow the same shit they'd rap to you. In the same class they'd be rapping about loving your enemies and if you looked around, talked, or messed up in any way, they'd make you kneel on a three cornered ruler or slap the shit out of you or hit you with a paddle or any other torture they could think of.

This was when I was nine years old in catholic grammer school these sadistic mother fuckers tortured and beat the catholic children and robbed the parents of their money in the name of god.

Yeah, all in the name of god. It doesn't take you very long to learn that these mother fuckers do more than say their prayers. I went to a catholic grammar school for 6 years and in those 6 years I got beat more than in any gang fight. And I spent more time in the office than in school. What it was is that these chumps couldn't relate to anyone who didn't believe the big lie, who didn't go to church every sunday, who stole a few things, got in a few fights and didn't walk around with head bowed and hands folded. In other words they couldn't relate to any normal kid!

This happened at St. Sabina and when you're marked a bad kid at Sabina you may as well hang it up 'cause these chumps won't stop messing with you till you split the school. Everytime something was stolen, a window broken or anything else "bad" happened they'd take their 'bad guy' list and give it to a priest by the name of father White. Father White was the disciplinarian who also won the golden gloves and he loved to interrogate you. This motherfucker knows all the tactics the pigs use and probably does it more sadistically than any of them. If it turns out you didn't do what you were accussed of it might be better on you if you admitted it anyway 'cause the son of a bitch was just a sadistic chump!

After six years in grammar school I was sent out to Glenwood school for boys where I stayed for two years. When I got out of Glenwood I was just starting high school and started at St. Rita's. Rita's is taught by brothers (not revolutionary brothers) who don't fuckaround. These dudes are animals who are locked up in a cage called a monestary at night. Then they set them loose in the morning on the brothers who attend the school. At that time the racist pig chump mother fucker father lawlor was one of my teachers. I lasted a long time at Rita's, almost two years. After a string of suspensions, hundreds of detention slips, and numerous beatings, I was kicked out.

Then I went to St. Leo's. The very first day I went to school I got slapped around by some big chump ass Christian brother for commiting a mortal sin, combing my hair in class. After the first day I went home and said fuck it, I'm not taking no more shit from any of them chumps anymore. I decided to stand up and demand respect. So I went back to school with a whole new outlook - if anyone was going to do the hitting, I figured this time it would be me. I went about a month and a half and finally hit a teacher who hit me first. This was inconceivable to hit a teacher in a Catholic school so I was suspended but not thrown out. Because my record was so bad they felt sorry for me because I wouldn't be able to get in another school if I was thrown out. So I said I'd be good and lasted about a month. This time they accused me of destroying a typewriter. I wasn't expelled from school for this but they said it was my last chance, but since I didn't do it I gave them some shit (I mean, I said I didn't do it) and ended up getting suspended from school. After a few more hassels I finally got kicked out.

There's not a whole lot more I'd like to say about the Catholic church, it's schooling system, or it's brainwashing techniques because it's so hypocritical and full of shit it makes me sick.

Hey wait a minute! Dig this! I was just sitting here writing about the church, listening to the radio and they said some dude just tried to off the Pope. The dude said he was trying to kill the symbol of hypocrisy and superstition which is the Catholic church headed by the Pope. Right on brother! Off all pigs whether they're in black robes, blue uniforms, or $200. suits

Wilber said he was shot down over Nghean Province in June, 1968, after 20 missions. Schweitzer said he was shot down Jan. 5, 1968, just outside of Haiphong after 11 missions.

They said they received letters about once a month and packages about every two months.

Wilber said the packages included "small items, chocolate candies and things we appreciate all the time."

Schweitzer commented, "Our wives send the usual underwear, handkerchiefs, socks. We don't really need any clothing, but you know what wives are."

They said they use "a regular form letter" in corresponding with their families and that the families also used a form. On special occassions, such as birthdays of their children, or anniversaries, they said, they tape radio messages for their families.

"If we have a special occasion, an anniversary, children's birthday," said Wilber, "all we've got to do is say we want to send a message and it's transmitted. I understand these things go through Cuba."

They said their daily activities included three meals, exercises, cleaning their rooms, volleyball or other sports "music programs and the like."

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES, Mon., Dec. 28, 1970

The pig media have been rapping down a lot of stuff lately about prisoners of war (POW'S). The American POW's inside Viet Nam have been made a big issue for the people in the U.S. to deal with. The issue is a heavy one, but the facts have been distorted by this racist government. They almost make it sound like our brothers and husbands have been captured and imprisoned by the Vietnamese while passing out candy bars to the hungry children there. T.V., radios, newspapers and magazines, all across the country, are saying that for these American families, the Holidays will be especially lonely because their sons or husbands are in POW camps. The fact that there are also Vietnamese POW's and that their families are lonesome for them too, is never once mentioned. For all families of prisoners, life is hard and lonely without their loved ones.

The pentagon war-mongers and their flunkies - Nixon and Agnew - use this type of publicity to divert the publics attention from the real issue - the war itself. And we can't let them get away with the fact that there are thousands more Vietnamese people being held captive, in their own country, by the brutal American government.

The head military pigs have shown that they have no regard for human life. These low life dogs have taken several Vietnamese prisoners who refused to give information, up in a helicopter and pushed one or two out in order to scare the others into talking.

Vietnamese women are constantly beaten, teargassed, and have lye and acid thrown on their faces by riot police.

The pigs put electrodes on the ears, chest and sex parts of the prisoners bodies and send electricity thru them. They also throw people in barrels of water and send electric current thru it - leaving brave Vietnamese men and women crippled for life.

Men, Women and Children are thrown into 'tiger cages' with no room to lie down, no meals (a little rice and water) and guards urinate on them.

It has become common practice for G.I.'s to enter a village and rape every female - young and old - and then to impale one or two women on stakes to totally demoralize and horrify the villagers.

Babies are burned and tortured in front of their mothers eyes.

The barbaric treatment of Vietnamese POW's is just a glimpse of how these fascists will be treating us here in America when they realize the masses of people are against them and therefore the enemy.

This man was tortured by South Vietnamese troops under the U.S. officer's direction. He was suspected of being a Viet Cong soldier and when he refused to talk was shot minutes later.

In Viet Cong camps, the American prisoners have seen what being a revolutionary freedom fighter means. John M. Sweeney, a U.S. Marine, was a prisoner of the Viet Cong. After being told by his superior that if he was ever caught by the V.C. they would torture and kill him, his unit left him alone to die of malaria. The V.C. found him and brought him back to one of their POW camps. There, he was cured and educated about the history of this war and why they are fighting so hard and what they are trying to build. John Sweeney knows who the real enemy is and so do hundreds of G.I.'s who desert the army and sometimes fight on the side of the V.C. just like Sweeney.

By looking at the actions of the V.C. and then the actions of the American military, it's obvious that the American army is a pig army and the Viet Cong is truly a people's army. The people of Vietnam and the people of the U.S. want a total withdrawal of all troops, from Nam. The pigs have tried to divert the attention of the people to 'American POW's' instead of stopping the war as Americans and Vietnamese demand.

Another trick those slimy pentagon murderers are pulling is - by building this concern for prisoners in North Vietnam - now they're using this as an excuse to bomb that liberated country again. Those lying racists are just using these raids to escalate the genocide against the Vietnamese people. An article in the Sun-times even states that the 'attempts to free American prisoners from POW camps was insane, because it was known that the target camps had no prisoners. Dig that! No prisoners! Those so-called camps were Vietnamese villages!

This blatant attempt to justify genocidal raids against the heroic Vietnamese people by using the hardship and lonliness of families here - is an all time low even for the low-life creatures in the pentagon. Our brothers are kidnapped off the streets and shipped to Nam and forced into a brutal life in the army and then the army kills a whole country in an 'attempt to save our G.I.'s' who wouldn't be there in the first place if they hadn't sent them there. This war will stop and the racist lying dogs in the White House and the pentagon will drown in their own blood. The people will rise up and defeat the oppressors!

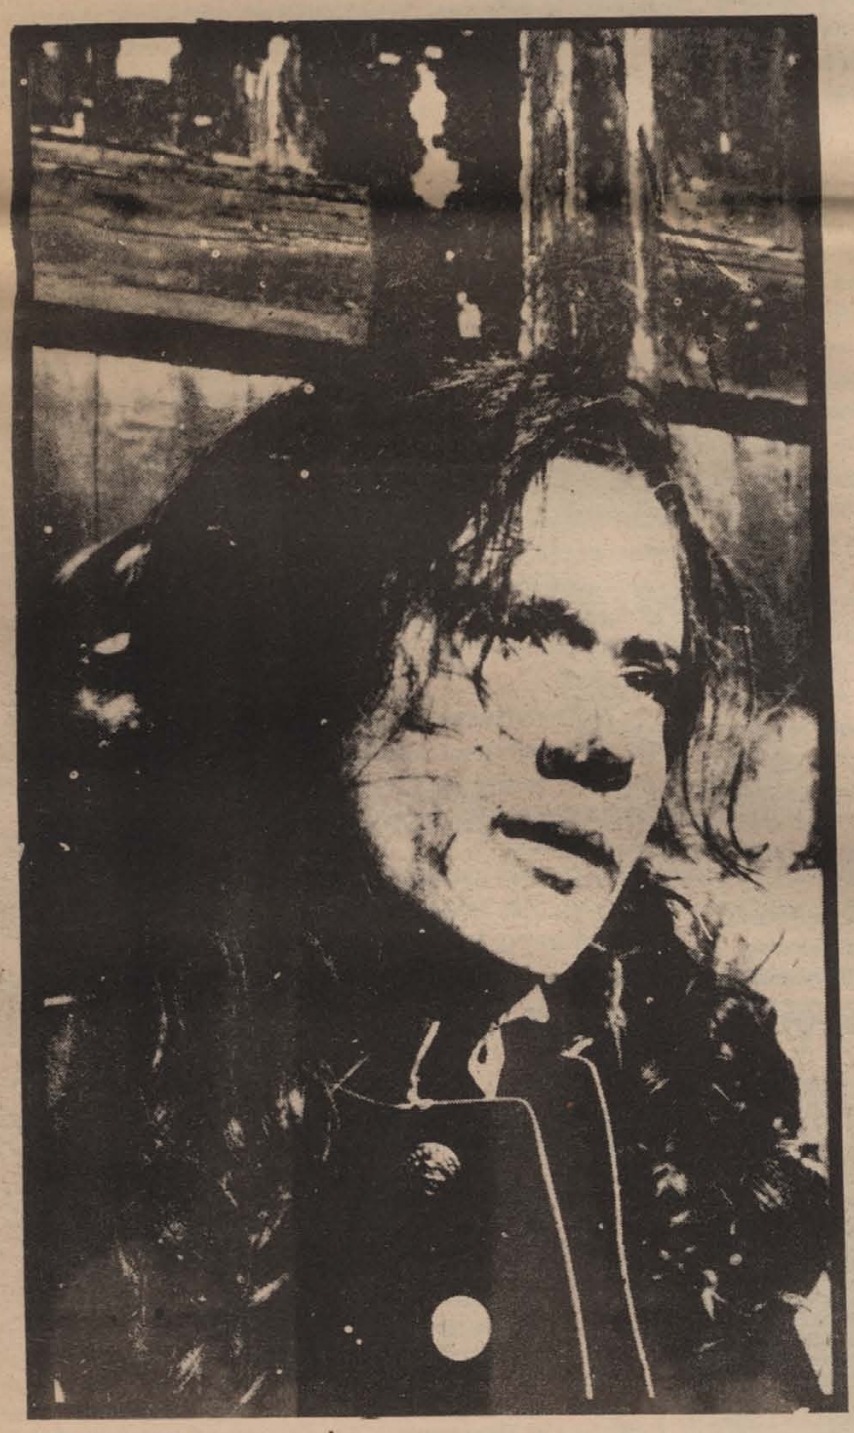
RAPE-IT

It was late one night on Lincoln Ave. when a carload of three guys pulled up. At first it seemed like just one of those hassles--guys giving a girl a hard time and then splitting. But this time it was merely the beginning of a nightmare. The nightmare of a TRAIN RAPE. After pulling her into the car (on Lincoln Ave. with absolutely no response from the passing traffic), they beat her and told her that this was just the beginning. Once inside their apartment each took his turn at both raping her and beating her. When they were bored with this they figured out a new kick. A buddy was getting off work from the morning shif. They decided to pick him up at work so that he could have his turn too. So in broad daylight they dragged her out to their car just as another car was passing. She freaked and bolted to the passing car. Even though it was going 20 miles an hour she managed to jump on the car. Blood was dripping out of her pants and some of the blood smeared on the car. But the car kept going and not even the car behind it stopped. After that the three guys pulled her back into their car and then picked up their buddy at work. Then they drove to some near by woods where she was raped again. Finally at 10:00 a.m. they pulled up to a bus stop, handed her 45 cents and told her they wanted to get some "fresh meat."

MAGGOTS, MOTHERFUCKERS, SUB HUMAN FOUL SMELLING BEASTS--YES! But they don't look like Frankenstein; they look like any dude who passes you on the street. One was a duper, one a freak and the other grease--all white around 19 years old--just look for a kick.

Three weeks ago the headlines of the Sun Times were "Northside Rapist, Many Women Attacked." Before that news of a woman raped and killed in her hotel room with her husband bound and gagged watching. Two little girls ages 4 and 7, last seen playing in the neighbor's yard. Neighbor reports that the little girls were last seen when a car with one man pulled up along side of them.



These are just the facts, the stories that you hear about and see in the papers. You read about the girl and feel sorry for her, but if you're a woman, these stories are much heavier than that. Because each one of us, whether we've been raped or just had some kind of wierd sexual experience, can relate to that fear that it could have been me. For we are women and we walk, breath and live in America, so we know the fear of the rapist. And we know that this must be stopped!

For a long time we have known this fear and this anger, but kept it quiet, hidden within ourselves. If you have actually been raped then you know the anger and the hate, but you also have felt the deadening feeling of shame and guilt, and that feeling of being so dirty and only hoping that no one finds out.

But the shame and the guilt must be part of the past. For we women who are beginning to feel our strength---to feel the taste of dignity and self-respect. We are beginning to understand that rape is not simply an accident. It is also not something that we should bear as "our" scar, as "our" fault, "our" shame. For the guilt belongs to the rapist and the pig American society that produced him. A society where women are considered nothing more than sex objects, creatures destined to serve men's needs, sexual or not. A society that is always holding people back, fucking them up, never letting them develop. A society that defines manhood as being able to control--but most men can't even control their own lives, so the only 'things" to control are "their" women or kids. Men's lives are defined by boring and low paying jobs, draggy sargents, a perverted guard, or whatever. So most men don't make it, don't become what they were told they were supposed to be, and they never really get the satisfaction promised them. So the perverted American dream produces frustrated insecure men, guys who use women as a crutch--depending on women to be inferior to them whether at home or on the street. Whether he is beating her, ordering her around or raping her--the last is just more extreme. As this capitalist monster gets more uptight and fascist, lots of guys who aren't into the revolution are going to get more frustrated and women will take the brunt. The brunt of the little girls dissappearing from yards and the train rapes on Lincoln Ave.

So where do we go and what do we do? On one level we know that only by making the revolution, by trying to live as revolutionaries will we be able to truly change the relationships between women and men. We will build revolutionary relationships and revolutionary love based on equality and mutual respect. From there we can build openness and trust, so a girl can freely walk down the streets not fearing darkness or the affection and friendliness of a stranger. For the frustration and the perversion of the rapist will be dead.

On another level we have to begin to deal seriously with self defense. Alot of our parents still think we can turn to the pigs for help, not understanding how humiliating it is to have to turn to the pigs who aren't much different than rapists themselves (some pigs are actually well known in the neighborhoods for being rapists and wife beaters.) And if the pigs are brought in, the courts are even more of a drag. You've got to go through the humiliation of answering questions like 'what were you doing out so late?" Implying that only bad women stay out late, thus you must be the seductive type, or implying that these were probably boyfriends or old boyfriends, that you were actually willing. And even if the dude is convicted what does it mean? He has to spend an incredible amount of time in a rotten cage. He doesn't change, society doesn't change, and the judge is a potential rapist himself. So we have to work out our own alternatives, starting with self defense. Sisters we must begin to train, whether it be karate, guns or knives. We must take it serious, for a gun or a knife are dangerous tools unless we know how to use them. But with training we can use these skills and these tools to strengthen us in the face of the enemy.

SITUATION AT DAMEN AND DIVERSY PROJECTS

The Lathrop Projects at Damen and Diversey and Clybourne are supposed (and notice I said supposed) to be a place for people with low incomes to live and raise their families with a minimum of trouble. But this isn't what happens. If you can't come up with the rent exactly on time - 5 day notice. If you have parties and shit - 5 day notice. If you're hanging out or playing cards in the yard, the security guards or town hall pigs are there to harrass and bust you. One group of people who live at the projects and have it expecially bad are the young people - black, white and latin. We don't have any place to go to stay off the streets (which means in jail) and the pigs who run the projects don't want to help us. A couple of years ago we had a clubhouse and if a sister or brother needed a place to crash, they would crash at the clubhouse. Well the pigs didn't dig this and kicked us out. Since then we've been trying to get a place for us to hangout. They keep telling us if you just do this or that you can get the clubhouse back, but when it comes down to it, they back out. New we told pig Duvaul, the head of the projects, if we can't stand inside the projects and can't stand in the parking lot, and can't stand on the streets - where are we supposed to go? That chump had no answer cause those are the only places there are.

So what happens is we hangout where we can - in the projects, in the hallways, in the parking lot, or across the street and we are constantly harrassed by the pigs. Like,if we're in the playlot, the pigs come driving in there up to 60 m.p.h., endangering all the little kids who are playing there - then they blame it on us. Or maybe we're just sitting around bullshitting or singing outside the boys club (because if you're over 21 or if you want to smoke, you can't go in) and the security guards will come in and break it up. (Now there's the Wells Fargo guards - we've got to check them out).

Lots of town hall pigs try to make a name for themselves by fucking up lots of people from the Projects. Last summer, there was this rookie pig Ryzario (or whatever the chumps name was) who would walk up to a bunch of people and start beating on a brother for no reason and when a fight started, he'd crack a bunch of us and call in all kinds of replacements. And he'd also come around and rap to the sisters (as if they could dig pigs). One night he came over to pick a sister up, and she charged him with rape. That chump ain't been around since.

And the pigs don't just harrassspeople across the street, in the yard, or in the parking lot - they bust into people's clubs with no search warrants whenever they feel like it. One night a bunch of us were up at one of our clubs, someone knocked on the door so we opened it. A pig was there and he said we had called him. Before we could tell him to fuck-off, a bunch of pigs had charged in, tore the crib up and busted us all for burglary. The evidence they had was clothes that were in a gargage can behind the projects. And then to top that off, when we went to court, some burglary pig who hadn't even been there, testified. he chased us from the store to the crib. That case isn't unusual - it happens all the time. That's why most of us have records before we're 18. Because of all of this harassment, brutality and death, we've found that the only way the pigs who run this society listen to us is when we act together and use any means available to us including violence. I mean, we can't use legal actions against them. When the Certified Store across the street tried to frame up a 12 year old brother for robbery, the windows were broken and the store looted enough times for the chump manager to decide not ot show up in court.

That's the future for the sisters and brothers of the projects. We've got to get ourselves togethers and act in a revolutionary way to give all of the people a better life. We've taken enough bullshit from the motherfucking pigs and it's time to counter - attack.

PIG GETS IT AT PAULINA—BARRY COMMUNITY

The brothers and sisters of P.B.C. have a new winter meeting place. Besides keeping out of the cold, they have real good food and they don't yell about people just sitting and talking and having a good time. But the pigs don't like the idea of people getting together, they come in and start hasselling everyone. They intimidate the brothers and sisters with all kinds of bullshit.

One night recently, the people in the restaurant started getting hasseled by the local pig. The brothers and sisters seized the time and started shouting slogans and they jumped on the pig. One brother grabbed the pig's hat and split. When the pig realized his hat was missing he freaked out. He told all the people that they had better tell him who took it, or else. But the poeple didn't listen, so he drove around and tried to find the brother on his own. Needless to say, the pig didn't find anything except a lot of angry people. That pig doesn't know it but next time it won't be just his hat, the people will take his head too !! KILL THE PIGS ! SEIZE THE TIME !

Also don't forget about the R.U.A. Benefit Jan. 17th, at Alices on Wrightwood near Lincoln. The neighborhood band called TAXI is going to play and lots of other bands too, along with movies and good raps. Everybody should come and bring all your friends. There is a donation of $1.50 (there's a 50c coupon in this issue of Angry). P.B.C. will be there and I'm sure everyone that reads Rising Up Angry will come too!!!!

GAY POWER

During the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention, some Revolutionary gays were refused service at a restauant in Washington, D.C. These people were not about to take the shit and trashed the sexist store. When our sisters and brothers are refused their ritht to eat a meal inside of a public place, then these people have a right to take what was rightfully their in the beginning. These same kind of incidents happen all of the time to black people as well as gay people. This action that was done to the sexist restaurant in D.C. is a just action and should happen if the owners or managers are going to act in such a discriminatory maner.

For dealing with this restaurant, they were jailed by the Pigs and forced to be separated from the rest of the convention. As wer can see, nothing at all was done about the restaurant owner for discriminating against the people, except what the people themselves did about it. The laws are there to protect those who do own property, not those who are affected by the property.

Huey on Youth Culture

S.F., Cal, – "I think that the drug culture and the drop-out movement are in a transitional stage," said Huey Newton in an interview with John Bancroft and David Fenton of Liberation News Service August 21st in New Haven. "I think that the youth will drop out and then they'll start dropping in again after they see they can't find any peace by separating. They'll drop back in and when they drop back in, they'll be very political. Because then they will have experienced everything short of violence – running away through drugs and so forth – but when they come back, they'll come back very serious and they'll see that the only solution is to transform what's here, and they can't go anywhere else.

"I think that the youth culture at this time is another manifestation of the separatist idea that many black nationalists preached just a few years ago. The youth drug culture is another manifestation of this – you know, like 'we'll get out of the whole thing.'

"But we're starting to find out that we can't separate," said the Supreme Commander of the Black Panther Party, "because imperialism won't allow us to separate. Imperialism won't allow developing countries some 10 or 15 thousand miles away to live in peace, and they're already separated on a geographical level. If imperialism won't allow those countries to be free 15,000 miles away, it surely won't let a group of people right here in North Amerika separate."

Maggots Storm Wrong House!

Three carloads of rampaging fascist plainclothes pigs busted into a store at 1837 W. 47th Tuesday. In their usual sadistic manner, guns drawn, kicking in the door with a sledge.

Donna Carrigan, 18, who lives on the second floor was caring for her seven brothers and sisters when she heard glass breaking in the downstairs store. She heard the pigs on the back stairs and when she opened the door, they stuck their guns in her face and began oinking 'wheres Joe? wheres Joe?'

She said that she didn't know any Joe.

The pigs then ransacked the apartment with sister Donna and her little brothers and sisters looking on with guns pointed in their faces. Then they took her down to the empty flat of William Hatfield Jr. and searched it. Then they took her to the basement and kicked in the door and searched it too. Then one of the pigs made a call and said 'everythings 10-4 at 1835'

She said 'this is 1837' and with that the pigs, knowing they had made a mistake, fled.

William Hartfield Jr. said, 'they didn't even come back and say that they made a mistake.' Now dig this a pig at the 9th district said that squads had gone to the address but he didn't know for what. The pigs think they are part of Hitler's stormtroopers rampaging through our communities. It won't be long till we, the people, get our revenge. Even now we dance at the news of your deaths and from the smallest shack to the highest steeple we dare to shout- ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

HAMLIN PARK

Even though it's cold now and most people aren't on the streets as much as they were this summer, the brothers and sisters from Hamlin Park have left their message on the streets. Revolutionary wall painting is a good way to get your message across and when you go by Hamlin Park you know that there are some revolutionaries near by. 'People Got To Be Free' - 'End Fascism' and 'End Police Harassment'. And you also know that pig Reily is the most hated pig in that area. Revolutionary propaganda is just the first step in building a revolution. So now the sisters and brothers from Hamlin Park have to carry it to a higher level - they've got to take action that will make their desires and wishes come true.

REVOLUTIONARY CONVENTION

The Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention was dynamite. The brothers and sisters who were there know how boss it was. This article's initial purpose is to rap down to the people who have never been to a rally, convention, or anything of this nature, and tell you how essential a revolution is. Greaser brothers and sisters, usually are gang-bangers; I know I was. But can you imagine 10 thousand people all in one place, not to fight each other but to fuck up pigs and to figure out the best ways possible to help all the people.

Huey P. Newton was there and he made a speech which in short said that:

We in the U.S. are not the only people in the world who are fighting the capitalist pig, but people all over the world are fighting together. We aren't fighting for nations any more, we're fighting to free all communities and defend our free territories.

We should serve the community as much as possible. That's our main job right now.

The Black Panther Party is not engaged in armed struggle (military warfare with the pigs) right now, and if they were they wouldn't run around telling everyone anyway. Right now, we have to concentrate on serving the people and defending our communities.

Women are very important leaders of the Black Panther Party, and they're important leaders of the revolution all over the world. Huey said he felt that women were most probably the vanguard in the revolution.

The Lumpen played a few revolutionary jams and we just dug it all. It was really a dynamite thing to be at. I hope that when I go to another convention I can see a few milliln people instead of a few thousand.

HIJACKER FORCED TO TURN SELF IN

Remember the two brothers who hijacked the ship last year and took it to Cambodia? The press called them gun toting, dope smoking hippies. The press was wrong. The brothers were revolutionaries. Just after they did it, the U.S. government's C.I.A. overthrew the Cambodian government and the brothers were held captive. One of the brothers escaped from his guard and along with another American escaped to fight alongside Cambodian and Vietnamese revolutionaries.

Brother Alvin L. Glatkoski was still being held by the Cambodian lackeys of theU.S. government and just recently was forced to turn himself over to the U.S. authorities. He is now charged with mutiny on the high seas, assault, transporting persons in foreign commerce and neglect of duty.

Alvin stated that the only thing he regretted was that they didn't blow the ship up when they had the chance. These brothers, who seized a 10,000 ton ship off the Gulf of Thailand, acted in a truly revolutionary manner. Alvin made it clear that he believes in the revolution in the mother country, right here in the U.S.A.

Calumet City Brother Killed by Pigs.

Stanley Gawlinski, a Marine vet who had "served his country", was recently killed by pigs in Calumet City. His mother is pushing the issue, trying to prevent it from becoming just another open and shut case (by the pigs) of "justifiable homicide".

Stanley, his wife, and baby were riding in a car. When persued by an un-marked car that didn't identify itself, Stanley tried to evade the car menacing him and his family.

Stanley's mother reports that the previous week he had been chased by some people in a car, and he must have thought that this was a similar incident.

The maniacs turned out to be pigs. They shot Stanley in the head. Only through his Mom's efforts did it come out that more than one shot was fired by the murderers of the Calumet City Pig Force. These mangy fools attack the people without identifying themselves as so-called peace officers, and then try to justify their actions by saying "all in the line of duty". Bullshit!

All pigs are enemies of the people.

They are the gun held by the super pigs they work for. To get the super pigs, we must get the pigs who protect them.

ARETHA FRANKLIN VOLUNTEERS TO BAIL OUT SISTER ANGELA DAVIS, POLITICAL PRISONER!

Soul singer Aretha Franklin, who has made much money off of her killer jam recordings, has stated that she will use the bread that has come from the people to free one of the peoples' leaders, sister Angela Davis. Sister Angela has not had bond set. She is being held in Calif. in connection with the murder of a judge last summer in San Rafael's court house. Jonathan Jackson, brother of George Jackson (a brother who has been in Calif. prisons for ten years and is now being charged with the murder of a guard--after guards killed a number of prisoners) walked into the court room, took over, freed three prisoners and took some captives, including the prosecuter and the old judge. The pigs, who would rather stop the people at any cost than protect their own slimy kind, opened fire on the getaway truck, killing the judge. Sister Angela is now charged with murder, because she alledgely bought the guns used. Angela must be set free. George and all the Soledad brothers must be set free. All the people must be freed. Thank you sister Aretha.

FOLSOM PRISON STRIKE

The Folsom Prison Strike in California, which began on November 3, is now over. The strike, a refusal to support the prison system which exploits and oppresses them, lasted 18 days. The 2,300 Folsom prisoners spent those 18 days in constant lock-up,without exercise and surviving on two sandwiches a day. The warden locked up all prisoners in response to the overwhelming support for the black, brown and white prisoners for the strike and the 29 demands of the inmates for human prison conditions. Immediately at the end of the strike, 78 prisoners chosen by prison authorities as "leaders" were thrown into the "hole," and many of these were brutally beaten to serve as examples to all the inmates of the "official" reaction to demands for human dignity. What the fascists have revealed is the courageous spirit of the people in America's concentration camps and the undying will of the people to confront oppression.

We are all prisoners. Free the prisoners. Free the people!

Liberation Necessary at Schurz High School

About 1 month ago we at Angry got together with a couple of brothers at Carl Schurz High School We just rapped about a few things and we all agreed that the school was bullshit.

So we decided to take vanguard action and turn a bullshit History class into a people's Political Education class. We all went into the classroom and informed the students about the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention. (Check out the last Angry for more information.)

Now the school got itself a new pig! They are also very hard up for security. What I mean is now they make you walk out for lunch through certain doors and come in through others. If you don't have your I.D. you don't get in. Now you can imagine what a bad time the average jive class cutter has. Fascist Maniac Timmy Lynch is on a rampage ripping brothers and sisters off the street outside the school and bringing them all in for discipline from the Maggots in 120 (school office) who suspend people left and right, and tell you, "Listen punk, its a privilege going to Carl Schurz High School." Or else they just give you bullshit detentions. So for some students there is too much confusion and no solution. Others find that revolution is the only solution.

Fuck you pig Timmy Lynch. Next time you rip off our brother or sister we may have to rip you off. Fuck you chumps in the office, the students will have a liberated school someday. And then maybe we'll all learn what we want to learn and not what some small time punk capitalist wants us to learn.

Seize the time brothers and sisters, for Schurz High School is a small part of the monster which fucks over us all!

Roberts Family Still Harrassed by Pigs

The fascist harrassment of the Roberts family is continuing (see last issue of Angry). On December 22, Denny Roberts, Richie Roberts and Jeanie Roberts went to court for a previous charge. The case was supposed to be disposed of that day, but after much conferring between the pigs and the prosecutor, the case was continued When Denny Roberts and Richie and Jeanie tried to leave the courtroom, the door was blocked by some chumppig who thought he was Marshall Dillon.

Denny and Richie were pulled into a side room. When their sister tried to find out what was going on she was told that if she didn't shut up she would be busted. It turned out that the pigs had a warrant on Richie for aggravated battery. He was accused of jumping the same pigs that Denny was. At the time these pigs were getting their asses kicked , though, Richie was at home watching t.v. The pigs are just afraid of Richie, so they want him in jail.

Locking Richie up on $10,000 bond was just the pigs way of wishing the Roberts family a Merry Christmas. It just proves the point that fascism never takes a holiday and we must be prepared to deal with these pigs 24 hours a day every day.

ROOT RUNNER A PIG LOVER

I hope all the brothers and sisters from the Bel-Airs and Simons City had a chance to see the writing on the walls (Off the Pig - Boycott the Root - a Fred Poster and a Fight Fascism Poster) across from the Root and on the Root window before that pig Brent DeLand and his flunkies destroyed it. Don't let this shit stop you. You can't always depend on other people to write on the wall for you. Get it together! Write it again. We can't let this chump keep running the Root. We were reading the Northwest Journal and the creep was talking about taking matters into his own hands. He couldn't do shit. He ain't got us to back him up anymore - so what can he do? We should either get the Root back, or destroy all the work we put into it. Why let the pigs flunkies take credit for the people's work? When are you gonna finally quit this job, Brent? Don't you know that the people don't like pig-lovers? You've been talking about quitting for months. Just like everything else you talk about. It never got done. Don't you know talk is cheap. People of the Bel-Airs and Simon City dig this - nobody likes Brent so why do we continue to let him talk his shit. We've got to get ourselves together. We've got to stop this stupid gang-banging and get into the revolution. Think of things this way, we go fight other clubs - right? What happens? The pig comes and busts both gangs and people go to jail. When people go to jail you need money to bond them out. We can't win. Even if we win the fight, we still go home losing. The pig always wins. Now, if we just fought the pig in the first place, we'd be a lot better off. In the first place, the pig promotes racism. He wants you to fight with other gangs, nationalities and races because every time we do, he gets a pat on the back for busting us - maybe even a raise in pay if it's a big bust. It's about time we realize that the pig is the real enemy. Another thing brothers and sisters - when you pick up a copy of Angry, don't just look at the things concerning the neighborhood. Check out the whole paper. You'd be surprised to see how much you might learn. There's so many interesting things to read concerning all the people and how the pig has fucked over us for decades.

Brothers and sisters, when you get busted and you know for sure you're going to jail, fight that pig, kick his ass because he's gonna try like hell to kick yours.

Right On! Power to the Revolutionary Bel-Airs and Simon City.

OFF THE FASCIST PIGS-KILL THEM MOTHERFUCKERS

PIGS AT SCHURZ

When we say that Schurz is nothing more than a jail - we're not exaggerating. Let me run down the various types of pigs that we have to deal with. First there's the head pig - our beloved principal - who thinks he's back in his military intelligence days. He spends his lunch hour cruising around trying to catch some righteous sisters and brothers doing something he considers wrong. Then the next level pig is the plainclothes cat who passes himself off as a substitute teacher - but he never seems to be teaching a class and always seems to be hanging around the halls. He's also been seen in his uniform. Then we have those low-life pigs called narcs. They hang around the bathrooms looking for people making deals, sniffing for weed and generally being assholes. There are also uniformed pigs who guard the halls. And finally, if you still don't believe that this school is a jail, this next one ought to convince you. They had a pig stationed on the roof of the school with binocculars to make sure that nothing went on outside the building and to check on who was trying to escape. With all these pigs crawling around our school it's easy to get paranoid. But more and more sisters and brothers are beginning to understand that the way to deal with our fascist situation is not to give in - but to unite and fight back.

Jahn Elementary-- Youth Make the Revolution!

As we all know, 'youth will make the revolution.' This statement is made very clear as we move around the city rapping to grammar school sisters and brothers - they know what is coming down and aren't afraid to move in a revolutionary fashion to change that situation.. Some right on sisters and brothers who attend Jahn school on Wolcott and Belmont understand completely that they aren't getting an education worth shit. They know that schools, as they are set up today, are more like jails and the only thing to do with jails is to break out or destroy them. That's why these prisoners at Jahn continue to break all the windows. As soon as new ones are put in - they break them out again. Right On!

BEL—AIR BROTHERS BUSTED

On the 14th of December one brother of the Bel-Airs who cribs by Senn High School, was at a restaurant across from his crib with two of his close partners from Armitage Ave.

They had been drinking a little because one of their brothers had gotten married that day. So in walks the pig and looks at the three and calls them outside. Upon the question of "why are you here?" , the answer of which was "We just came from Mike's crib"and because a 16 year old in the trio was not carrying ID, they were busted for disorderly conduct and minor drinking.

They were rushed stright to 11th and State where they were harassed by the pigs for the way they thought talked and walked.

One brother, 16, was released to his father. One 17, was bonded out by his partners and the other by Rising Up Angry.

ANGRY SISTER IN JAIL

We were rapping with a sister who has been in the Women's Section of Cook County Jail, because she will take no shit from anyone, especially pigs. Below is an account of how she got there and what it was like.

A friend had an accident on his motorcycle. When I asked where he was being taken, the police refused to to give me any information. I had a fight with six cops. I hit them with my fists and picked one up by his shoulders and shook him. All six got into one car and called police assistance.

I knew the police in Cicero, and they were trying to help me. They tried to pull me to the other side of the street, but Chicago police kept pulling me back. (One side of the street is Cicero, Illinois and the other side is considered Chicago.)

When the other police came, they handcuffed my wrists to my ankles. They all beat me with my own helmet. I got 4 broken ribs and a broken nose, and 2 black eyes. They took me to the slam. In jail I had an asthma attack; but they wouldn't let my old man give me any medicine. They said they didn't like motorcycle riders, or girls who acted like men.

My bail was $1000 cash; charged with 6 counts of aggravated battery and one of attempted murder (because the pig claimed I stabbed him with a shish kabab skewer).

The Grand Jury raised my bail $2500 more. Total $3500. Court dragged on 1½ years. Meanwhile, two of of police were suspended, because they were members of the Klu Klux Klan.

The police tried to make deals with me. They wanted me to sign papers so that I wouldn't sue for body damage. Then they would drop charges. Also the original judge didn't like motorcycle riders so I got a change of venue to the Civic Center. Then the judge there sent me back to Cook County. Also I had 2 court dates, one for this charge and one for narcotics. So a warrant was issued for my arrest and I spent 15 more days in County. But when the case finally got to trial, I defended myself in front of a Jury, and was found not guilty of beating cops. The narcotics charges were dropped too.

Only 8 hours later, I got into a fight with 2 men in a bar. They turned out to be cops. So I spent 2 more months in jail. I was held incommunicado for those two months and then was sentenced to 6 months.

To give you a little idea what County is like: the food is a bummer. You get a tin plate divided into three parts. One serving of whatever's on the menu. One slice of bread, one carton of milk once in a while. But lots of pissy coffee. No forks or knives, only spoons. No one is allowed to leave until everything is counted.

On Thanksgiving, I got oatmeal and grease gravy. Beans and rice are favorites. Once when I spent 3 days in lockup, with only one cup of coffee and one jail house baloney sandwich, the whole time, I threw coffee in a Matron's face and told her the coffee looked like piss. I got beat up.

Every time you went from the cell to court or to the DA's office, they checked your asshole. The Matron tells you to bend over -- and she sticks her thumb up your asshole.

In county you can't have any cigerettes until you have money in the commissary, but they let you roll three a day. You're locked in your cell at 6:30 or sooner every day. You can take a shower once a day. There's three spouts with no divider -- all one stall. I started a fight with a lesbian who wanted to feel the tatoo on my ass. For that I was put in a cell all alone and had to scrub floors. I refused and got hit in the head with a stick.

Even after being released you have to be examined gain, before you can go into your cell to get your belongings.

Fullerton and Pulaski: Fight Harder to Defend Our Programs

Due to the fact that police repression and bullshit arrests have been rampant in this area, the revolutionary brothers and sisters off the block decided to start a people's bail fund. Many people made small contributions to the fund, and it soon grew. It was stored in a brother's crib which the freaks, greasers, and lumpens off the block frequented during the cold weather. Apparently some perverted chump thought they would boost his (or her) income by ripping off the people's bail fund. This bootlicking brainless lackey flunkie, who stole the People's Fund, will be dealt with in the same way we would deal with a crazed maddog. Since we have all been raised in a decadent capitalist society, we are all victims of fascism and we all have our faults. But to steal money to be used to free people incarcerated in Babylon's fascist prisons, is the lowest thing one could do. The Fullerton and Pulaski Peoples Bail Fund will be started again, only our security will be intensified to protect the Peoples Bail Fund against fools or pigs who might infiltrate our ranks.

ANGRY BROTHERS BUSTED AT SENN

Some people from Rising Up Angry went down to Senn to get the papers around and to rap to the sisters and brothers there. One of the places we went to was a hang-out right across from the school. Everything was cool and no hassles happened until we were leaving. When we were just about to space, the pigs had to show their faces and start harrassing the people. Two came through the front door while one covered the back. They looked around and recognized two of the brothers that were with us. They brought them to their pig car and started to question them about their reason for being around the school and a lot of other irrelevant questions that were none of the pigs concern in the first place. Then the pigs came back inside and started to look for the rest of us. They grabbed a person they thought was one of us and pulled him into a hallway to question him. After a few more looks around the pigs split, taking our two brothers to the pig pen with them, where they proceeded to bust them on "disorderly conduct." The people back in the hang out started asking us why the brothers were being busted and what charge the pig could put on them for just passing out revolutionary papers and rapping with the people.

The pigs showed the sisters and brothers at Senn that there is no law in America that keeps the pigs in line, only laws that give pigs the right to run rampant all over the people!

The pigs told Rising Up Angry not to go inside their turf (20th District–Summerdale.) Man, dig that shit. The pigs told us not to go inside of their turf! All we can do is laugh at these silly-assed motherfuckers. Pigs: DON'T BE TELLING THE PEOPLE WHERE WE CAN OR CAN'T GO. RISING UP ANGRY WILL BE BACK AT SENN BECAUSE WE'RE INSIDE. WE'RE THERE EVERYDAY. SHUT YOUR MOUTHS, 'CAUSE WE DON'T LISTEN TO FASCIST ORDERS.

Revolutionary Sisters Celebrate NLF Anniversary

Revolutionary sisters from all over Chicago had a Birthday Celebration for the National Liberation Front of Vietnam. A lot of us never knew about the NLF or about Vietnam, especially our Vietnamese sisters. So the celebration was really hip; We had a slide show with music and narrative. Then a speech by the Womens Liberation Union, about women struggling for liberation all over the world, and how that's tied together with the liberation of all people--men, women, and children of all nations. There was guerrilla theatre about Nixon's fascist puppets in Brazil and how they tortured a revolutionary Brazilian sister. The sisters from Rising Up Angry went to a workshop on Vietnamese Women where we heard a tape of Madame Binh's interpreter (Mde. Binh is the chief negotiator in Paris for the NLF) talking about how the U.S. army has brutalized her sisters in Vietnam. She spoke about the beautiful, strong solidarity she felt with all American people -- especially all American Women. It blew our minds how she could relate such inhuman atrocities to her people by our government and then go on to say how close she felt to our own struggle.

Some brothers came along to cook a delicious Vietnamese dinner; they also did child care so all the sisters could take part in the program. The Womens Liberation Rock Band played -- and they were really good.

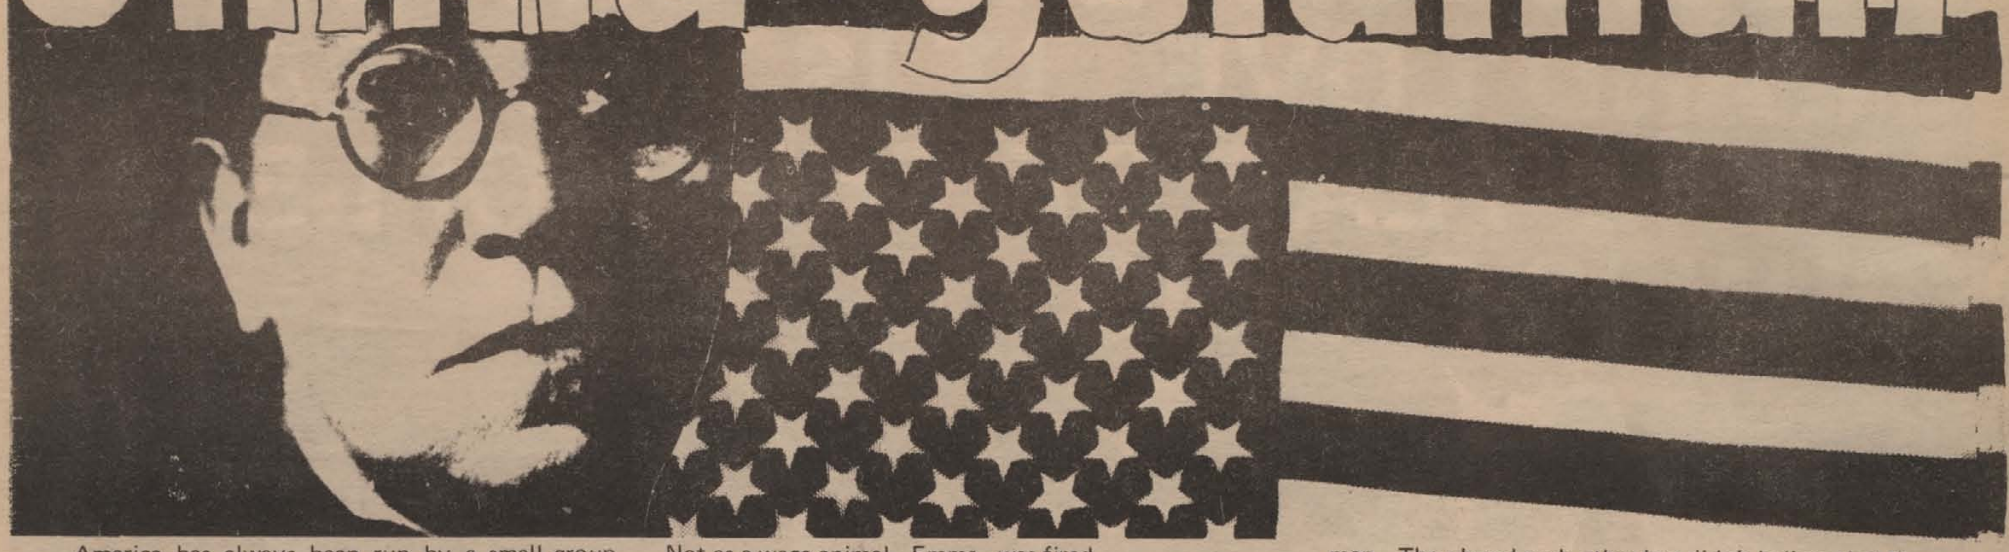
emma goldman



America has always been run by a small group of pigs, who run things for their own benefit. There has always been a need for revolution. Dig what was happening in the 1880's.

Many immigrants came to this country from Europe thinking they could escape from poverty and political oppression. Emma Goldman, an out-of-sight revolutionary sister was one of them.

But from the minute she saw the statue of liberty she knew better. When they got off the boat they were herded through immigration like cattle. The pigs showed no consideration to people who were elderly and sick. And when they got settled, the Goldman family found that America was not the land where the streets were paved with gold. A family of seven people had to live in a 4 room apartment and eat only one or two meals a day. The only work available was piecework that paid about $4.00 a week. Hardly enough to survive.

Emma rebelled against the job. She said that she was human and demanded that she be treated as such. Not as a wage animal. Emma was fired.

At the same time Emma learned that the other legends about America were also bullshit. Like the stories about democracy and justice. She got enraged over the incident of the Haymarket Riot in Chicago in 1886. There was a rally for the 8-hour work day. A bomb was thrown killing some pigs. The pigs then fired at the crowd, killing and wounding many innocent people. To this day, no one knows who threw the bomb. But the pigs arrested 8 revolutionaries and charged them with conspiracy. Five were hung.

Emma then began to get more involved in revolutionary activities. Her husband didn't dig this. He thought that a woman's place was in the home. They disagreed on a lot of things, so Emma split and moved from New Haven to New York.

In the early 1890's, Emma moved into a commune. She worked a 14 hour /day job and lived collectively with other revolutionaries. She had a relationship with a revolutionary brother named Alexander Berkman. They loved each other but didn't believe that they had to be married to be in love. They lived together, loved together and fought for the revolution together.

At about that time there was a strike at the Carnegie Steel Plant. The super-pig owner, Henry Frick, had workers killed rather than give in to demands for wage increases. So Emma and Alexander decided to kill Frick. They planned it out and Frick was critically wounded. Alexander was caught and spent 20 years in prison.

Emma spent the rest of her life fighting for the revolution. She fought for prison reform, birth control information, women's rights, and worker's rights. She was busted many times and spent time in jail. The pigs even tried to kill her. But Emma kept on fighting. Finally, the government threw her out of the country. That didn't solve the pigs' problem though. Because you can exile a revolutionary, but you can't exile revolution. Emma Goldman was run out of the country, but 60 years later the people are still fighting for freedom.

UNDER 18 AND BUSTED

Being a kid (the pigs and judges call you a "juvenile") in America is tough. In the eyes of the law, any man under 17 and any woman under 18 has hardly any rights. If you can't (or don't want) to make it with your parents, you get stuck in some instituion that's more like a jail than anybody's home (no matter how bad) could be. So juveniles are like prisoners no matter who's in charge. This article tells a few good things to know about juvenile laws so that you can stay as cool as you can and still rip off America the monster.

Juveniles (men under 17 and women under 18) are never really arrested--they're just taken into custody. Twenty four hours after being taken into custody, a juvenile must be turned over to a youth officer. Parents must be notified within 48 hours.

Sometimes the pigs will just take you down to the local pig pen and write up a card and then release you to your parents. If you play it cool and weren't picked up for anything heavy, they may do this. Its a hassle for them to get you down to the Audy home (jail) and since you aren't really arrested, the pigs get no citations for it like they do on "adult" cases.

But if the pigs aren't into letting you go they will call a youth officer to write up a "petition" on your case. Then you, the petition and the youth officer will be driven to Audy intake. Here you may have another chance to be released into someone's custody. The Audy intake officer (especially the night duty ones) can sometimes be convinced that it would be much better for you to go home with some "responsible adult" than to spend the night in the over crowded Audy intake.

If none of this works, the next day you will go before a judge for a custody hearing--to determine whether or not you should be kept in Audy home until your ajudicatory hearing, which is like a "trial" or a "finding of facts." This should happen within 10 days after your custody hearing, especially if you are to be kept in Audy home.

You have a right to be represented by a lawyer, even if your parents don't agree to it. You also have a right to make a phone call to a lawyer or a friend who will contact one for you. (This phone call should be asked for at the police station; if it isn't granted, ask for it again at Audy intake.) These are about all the rights you have as a juvenile, so take advantage of them!

At your adjudicatory or so-called fact finding hearing, it will be decided whether or not you are "delinquent" (that is, a juvenile who has committed an adult crime) or "a minor in need of supervision." If the judge finds there is no reason to hold you he will let you go with your parents or a so-called "responsible adult." If you are found to be a delinquent in need of supervision, or neglected, you may or may not be released to the custody of your parents or a responsible adult until your next hearing.

The next hearing is called disposition (like sentencing.) It should be held--at the most--30 days after the adjudicatory hearing. If you have to remain in the Audy home make sure that your lawyer, or the so-called public defender follows through on making sure that you get this hearing. At the disposition hearing different things can happen. You can be let go to your parents or "responsible adult." The court might decide that you must be taken out of your home and they will appoint a guardian. Or they can have you committed to the Illinois Youth Commission, which will assign you to one of the juvenile penal institutions after processing and 'testing' in Joliet. At one of these juvenile institutions--Sheridan, a camp, etc--you can be held until you are 21--even though you are no longer a juvenile. You have a right, however, to go into court and have a hearing on the disposition at any time.

JAIL THE JAILERS / FREE THE PEOPLE

Pig Richard Nuccio is out on $20,000 bond after having been convicted TWO TIMES of murder. (He shot brother Ron Nelson in the back in an alley). Lance Bell, a member of the Illinois Chapter of the Black Panther Party, is sitting in Cook County with no bond set, awaiting trial because he is accused of killing a pig in a shoot-out. P. J. Cullerton used his public office to cheat and rob taxpayers of thousands of dollars and he is still on the streets - not even charged with robbery, while Ronald Green was convicted of stealing $70 worth of food for his family and is serving 4 years in prison. If you burn leaves in your yard, you will be fined - while Commonwealth Edison is steadily destroying our environment and none of them are in jail.

These situations are only blatant examples of the types of injustices in America. It doesn't matter what you did, just who you are and whose ass you kiss. Anyone who believes that there is any justice in the courts either doesn't pay any attention to what's really happening or is afraid to admit the truth because they want to believe that there is justice. Rising Up Angry understands that there is no such thing as 'justice' in this fascist country and that means there is no such thing as 'a fair trial' in the courts.

The court system is a good example of how we get ripped off by the pigs. If we get busted (which is often) we've got to come up with the bread for our bond (which we usually can't do). So we've got to sit in the House of Correction or Cook County Jail until our trial comes up - which means that we lose our jobs and/or have to leave our family at home without us. In jail the food is rotten, the guards brutal and the conditions are horrible. Then when we go to trial, if we want to have any chance at all of getting cut loose, we've got to hire a lawyer who is going to rip us off for all sorts of bread. And just say we're found not guilty (which is rare) we've done all that dead time and we've still got to pay 10% court costs and our lawyers fee. We pay even if we're found innocent. Ain't that a bitch. But if we're convicted, we've got to do time or pay a fine (or work it off for $5 a day in jail) and pay court costs and pay the lawyer. Again the old slogan is true - 'under capitalism the people always lose.'

Recognizing how difficult it is to get thru the court system, Rising Up Angry has started a legal program to help people deal with this situation. The purpose of this program is to help people deal with legal problems of any type - from criminal to welfare to housing to the draft. We have some revolutionary lawyers who volunteer their time and effort to help the people If you've got a legal problem, come up to the office at 2744 N. Lincoln on Wednesday nights between 7 and 9 or call us any time and we will give you free legal advice, help you with your case, or refer you to a people's lawyer for little or no cost.

The reason that we set up the legal program, since we don't believe that people can get justice in the courts, is because dealing with the legal system is an everyday reality for all oppressed people. We have landlord problems or get busted day in and day out and therefore can't ignore the courts. So we have got to help soften the blow and help people get off as light as possible until the day we go into the courts and jails and prisons with our guns (like Jonathan Jackson) and set everybody free. So while we are dealing with the reality of the court system, we're putting our ideas into action - we say in the new revolutionary society people will have their needs met for free. This is the basic idea of the legal program - meeting people's legal needs for free. Since people learn from our actions, seeing that we have this type of program in operation, people will begin to believe that socialism can work. And while we are serving the people, we will educate more people as to how decadent the system is by pointing out the injustices dealt out daily to the masses of people by the fascist judges. These are the reasons that we started the legal program - not to get people to believe that they can survive in this fascist country.

This program has only been operating for a couple of months, but in that period of time we've helped a lot of people out and kept them on the streets. Like brother Angel, who was accused of assaulting a pig - he came out of that bust with only a $25 fine for disorderly conduct and no legal expenses. And when a landlord tried to evict a brother on the south side, he called RUA and with the help of the legal committee he got to stay in his crib. Nine brothers and sisters from Armitage and Kedzie were accused of reckless conduct, criminal damage to property, criminal trespass and resisting arrest, because they were throwing bottles at pigs. They didn't do any time for this and were just fined the amount of their bail for resisting arrest. These are just a few of the cases that we have dealt with.

We will help defend the people from the pigs any way we can. So if you've got a legal problem - check us out.

LONG LIVE THE SPIRIT OF JONATHAN JACKSON!

letters from brothers

Because Rising Up Angry is a revolutionary people's paper - we print the truth so people can learn from each other how to fight for their and our liberation. The right on sisters and brothers in the pig service need to communicate with each other and with those of us on the streets about what's going on at their fort or on their ship. That's why we like to print letters from those sisters and brothers who are imprisoned in the pigs military. We can't print all of the far out letters we get, but that doesn't mean we don't read your letters and get the information out to the people who can use it. So keep the letters and news coming and carefully check out these letters from some of our brothers stationed around the world - but fighting the same enemy - U. S. Imperialism. Right On!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are five G.I.'s stationed in Germany. We are hip to the revolution and have been for a long time. The lifers over here try to fuck with us and everyone else, but none of us take their shit. The games they play are really fucked up. All they do is waste our time and a lot of bread.

The lifer brass have alerts and the pig lifers are hip to the fact that the revolution is coming along fine. The revolution within the Green Machine is growing as fast as good grass. For the most part, they ignore it, because they aren't intelligent enough to stop it. Even if they had the brains - they couldn't stop it.

We hassle and harass them all the time. We never pass up a chance to fuck them up any way we can. We want them to suffer. Most of all - we want out!

ANGRY,

I am in the suck-ass Navy at Newport R.I. and am getting out soon for drug abuse. But what I would like to do is sell your paper around where I live in New York. There has been a lot of bullshit. I live about 30 miles from Woodstock, New York. There are a lot of Festivals going on around there. But everytime one starts to happen, the pigs jump in and the whole thing is fucked-up and the people are scared to fight back. There are a few that fight, but it isn't enough. You know yourselves, you need everybody together. I think your paper will give them the spirit to do it just as it gave me the spirit.
Right On!

ANGRY,

A friend of mine sent me a copy of your paper and I really dig it. As you probably figured from the address, I'm one of those unfortunate ones to be sucked into the Crotch. I was stationed in the States, but I got fucked and they gave me Wes-Pac orders. I ended up on this god forsaken Island called Okinawa. People think that over seas duty is a hell of a lot better than stateside duty, but this place is a man-made hell. I've never seen lifers like this before - except in boot and training camp. All these lifers want to do is fuck with you all the time. We got inspections up the ass and we've got to run about 2 miles every morning. These pigs over here are something else, they think they are god. All they are is a bunch of kiss asses. A couple of my brothers read the paper and really dug the shit out of it. This paper is about one of the best that prints the real truth. The U.S. Constitution says that we have freedom of speech but try to say what you please in the service and you'll be missing a stripe and a hell of a lot of money. Camp Hansen, that's my so called base, has the worst food that I have ever tasted, dogs don't even deserve this shit. You would think that being in the service, supposedly fighting for your country, they would feed you at least half way decent, but then again we got it better than our brothers in the Nam eating C-rats. Well, Uncle Sam is calling me so I'll leave with these words,
IF YOU ENJOY A LOT OF SEX, JOIN THE MARINE CORPS - YOU'LL GET FUCKED EVERY DAY.
Brother Cort

Dear ANGRY,

Right on! Right on! Right on! I received your package containing several issues of your last R.U.A. They were evenly distributed throughout the post in about 5 minutes due to good 'channels' here. The brothers over here are digging it greatly and would appreciate more issues sent. If you decide to help the Military Revolution by sending more, have them properly wrapped so as the lifer pigs can't fuck with them. I'm also sending a little poem I wrote while sitting in this rot-fuck place. The brothers over here kind of dug it - so we'll see what you say.
Off the Pigs!
F.T.A. A brother from Wilson Park

Revolution, revolution
on our father land,
No one realizes
the end is at hand.
Distant drummers play the beat;
one of a great nations defeat.
Not from war or bombs being dropped,
but from youth whose always been stopped;
from what he wants to do.
Makes no difference to you now,
'cause we are moving;
establishment confusing.
We are the future
what you're all looking for,
So why send us off
to be killed in war?
Like sheep being herded
off to be killed,
Is this what our forefathers
all have willed?
They fought for peace, a goal not yet reached,
it's up to us and what we have preached.
'Love one another, always be kind,
whether they be beautiful, deaf, dumb or blind.'
Come together brothers, sisters come one come all,
Save us from our nations
drastic fall.

REVOLVERS

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS:

1. Check to see if gun is loaded. You do this on a revolver by swinging out the cylinder. Pull back on the cylinder latch and gently push out on the cylinder. (see unloading a revolver photo #2)
2. Keep your finger off the trigger unless practicing trigger squeeze or firing.

3. Point your gun away from where someone may be shot-Point at the ceiling or to the floor, but wherever you point, make sure no one is in the way and can be harmed.

4. Never leave the hammer cocked on a revolver. (Explanation later on cocking a revolver.)

KINDS OF REVOLVERS:

.38 Snubnose - This gun has only a 2" barrel and shoots 38's. It is very easy to conceal.

.38 Special - Has a 4" barrel and shoots 38's.

.357 Magnum - This is the type of handgun the pig carries. The ammo for this is .357 magnum. Metal piercing bullets will pierce an engine block. This is the best type of revolver to have.

.41 and .44 Magnums - Have more knock down power than a .357 Magnum. The Highway Patrol carries these to shoot through car doors, but a .357 will go through a car door also and .357 ammunition is more plentiful.

FIRING A GUN

POSITIONS IN FIRING:

There are various positions in firing (shown below). Each one is used for a different battle condition. The prone position is for when you are being shot at and you have no cover, lay down as shown below making yourself as small a target as possible. The kneeling position is for when you can get behind a car or something, again making yourself as small a target as possible, and your standing position can be used in defense (for making yourself a small target) or for use in pursuit or offense. You should learn and become comfortable in each of these positions, because you never know what a situation might dictate.

KNEELING POSITION PRONE POSITION

UNLOADING:

Holding gun in left hand (pointed in safe direction) release cylinder latch with right hand. (#3). Push out cylinder with the fingers of left hand (#2). Now that you have swung out the cylinder and the bullets are visible you gently push down on the extractor and let bullets drop out into your right hand (#4).

LOADING:

To load, simply follow the same steps in unlatching the cylinder. Then drop bullets into the chambers of your cylinder. Gently push cylinder closed, and you are ready to fire. DO NOT SLAM CYLINDER CLOSED, this causes extra wear on your gun.

COCKING A REVOLVER:

Put the tip of your thumb on the hammer holding revolver steady in the palm of your hand. Do not put your finger in the trigger. Pull straight back steadily on your hammer spur until your hammer locks back. You gun is ready to fire, do not put your finger in the trigger until you are ready to fire. After cocking hammer, place your thumb directly on the frame beside the hammer, resting the tip of your thumb on the cylinder latch. (Photo #4)

Your forefinger should be placed on the other side of the gun straight out just above the trigger guard until ready to fire. Everytime you cock the hammer before firing, this is called single action firing.

UNCOCKING A REVOLVER (LOADED):

Keep your finger off the trigger! With gun already cocked, place your thumb on the hammer firmly. Now with the gun firmly in your hand, pointed in a safe direction, and thumb firmly on the hammer (still cocked) squeeze the trigger slowly until you can feel the hammer releasing. IMMEDIATELY TAKE YOUR FINGER OFF THE TRIGGER and slowly let the hammer go down into place with your thumb still holding it. DO NOT TAKE YOUR THUMB OFF THE HAMMER, let your thumb ride with the hammer very slowly until it is completely depressed and uncocked. By leaving your finger in the trigger, or letting the hammer fly forward you will FIRE THE GUN. Practice cocking and uncocking your revolver with the gun unloaded.

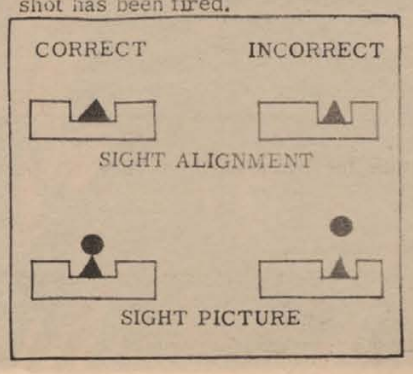
STEPS IN FIRING A REVOLVER:

The following steps must be observed in accurate shooting. If you don't pay attention to all four steps you will end up shooting just anywhere. Before you can learn to just draw and shoot you must observe the first steps in shooting. Practice these steps with your gun unloaded, until you can get them down pat, you will be able to see if you are following them correctly by the way you shoot.

1. Sight Alignment is aligning your rear sight and front sight together.
2. Sight Picture is placing the sights on your target with your sights already aligned.
3. Breath Control consists of taking a breath, letting a little out, holding the rest urtil you have completed your trigger squeeze and the shot has been fired.



STANDING (DEFENSE)

4. Trigger squeeze is very important in accurate shooting. When shooting single action apply slow steady pressure on the trigger. The shot sould not be anticipated, it should not be a surprise to you. When shooting double action or rapid firing, quick steady pressure must be applied. Be sure not to jerk the trigger. Use the tip of your finger, When shooting double action you might have to use more of your finger to apply steady even pressure. PHOTOS # 5 & 7

Single Action: cocking the hammer each time before firing. Cock the hammer and then pull the trigger.

Double Action: just pulling the trigger each time, not cocking the hammer first. Try not to jerk or snap the trigger. The action is fast but smooth.

Pointing: the process of firing quickly without using sight alignment. You simply draw and point the barrel at your target and fire.

Rapid Firing: drawing, pointing, and shooting double-action. When you practice rapid firing, shoot off two shots in succession as quickly as possible.

CLEANING A GUN

CLEANING YOUR REVOLVER:

For all of the revolvers listed at the beginning of the article you can use a .38 caliber cleaning kit. You will need a cleaning rod, bore brush tip, .38 caliber cleaning patches, cleaning solvent, and gun oil. For patches you can use material like flannel, and some types of cotton, any material that does not ravel or is very linty, cut into circles about 2" in diameter. All of this cleaning material can be purchased in any gun store.

Your revolver should be cleaned twice a week, and every time after firing. Keep it free of dust and dampness to avoid rusting. If you do not clean your gun immediately after firing it can cause corrosion of the barrel and eat away at it causing your shooting to become inaccurate because of holes that can develop from the powder eating away at the metal or rust from a lack of cleaning and dampness.

1. After firing your barrel and chambers in the cylinder have to be scrubbed with your bore brush and solvent every time. Attach brush to rod, dip brush in solvent, and use a brisk movement in and out of barrel and chambers in cylinder, cleaning out all of the particles out by holding barrel up to light to see if it shines inside, and you will be able to see any particles still holding on.

2. Detach bore brush and put tip on the end of rod. Slip a patch through the tip and mop the barrel and cylinder until the patch comes out clean. Use each patch about 10 times. You will have to use more than one patch to mop barrel completely clean.

3. Then attach clean patch to rod and add 2 to 3 drops of oil on patch and mop already dried barrel with oil. DO NOT soak patch in oil.

4. After cleaning the barrel and cylinder, take a patch with a little solvent on it and wipe off your extractor and all other metal parts (outside of cylinder, and the inside of the gun. Cock the hammer and wipe it off thoroughly, drop a couple of drops of oil down in hammer). PHOTO 11 and 12

PHOTO # 10

5. Take a patch and with a couple of drops of oil on it rub your revolver, (all metal parts) lightly. There should be no visible finger prints on your revolver or excessive streaks on the outside. Your gun should not have an oily surface, just apply enough oil for protection against rust.

6. Sometimes for extra hard to get areas you will have to use a toothbrush dipped into a little solvent and brush briskly the hard to get areas. Sometimes your bore brush will not remove all rust; in that case use fine steel wool and solvent, rubbing lightly to remove rust.

For normal cleaning just run a patch through the barrel and cylinder and wipe off the gun with a few drops of oil on patch.

CLAP RAP

There's a V.D. epidemic on in Chicago and lots of sisters and brothers in different neighborhoods have had to deal with clap or they want to know more about it. Because I got clap I did some investigating and found out that lots of doctors and drug companies are into getting rich--not into serving the people's needs. Since there isn't a lot of money to be made in wiping out V.D., nothing is done. They don't educate us about it, because they want us to depend on them for help. Also their sick minds figure that anybody that gets V.D. is BAD. So we got to help ourselves.

As young people, certain diseases like hepatitis and V.D. are speical problems for us, problems that could be wiped out relatively easily. But the medical establishment isn't doing much about preventing or wiping out these diseases. Did you know that there's now a world wide clap epi--demic? And to deal with this major epidemic there's only one V.D. clinic run by the city. And until 6 months ago, a lot of women who went there didn't even get cured be-cause the cheap assed city gave everyone 2.4 million units of penecillin even though it takes 4.8 million units for a woman to be cured. The smaller dosage makes the symptoms go away, but not the disease. A lot of people thought they were cured but still had clap. Like this one older woman I met who had suffered with bad cramps for two years before she went to the Free Clinic where thorou gh tests were performed and she was finally cured of clap. This example and thousands more like it point out that the city V.D. clinic and many private doctors can't and don't come anywhere near meeting the needs of the peo--ple as far as clap is concerned.

My experience with clap points out how inadequate this system deals with curing our diseases. My old man and I had the clap a long time. When we found out what the symptoms were, I went to a doctor. My test was negative so I thought it was cool. After we started working at the FREE PEOPLES HEALTH CLINIC at 925 W. Diversey we learned more about V.D. Like the simple tests most doctors give don't always detect clap in women. So we had more tests. His was positive, mine was negative. I thought that was weird but found out only 6 in 10 wo-men who are infected show up on gram stains (the usual test). I was also negative on the chocolate augar culture, a different type test, but only 2 out of 10 women showed up on that. Then the doctor gave me a pelvic exam to see if the germs had moved up into my tubes. Since the ex-am was very painful, we knew that was what had happen--ed. It turned out that the headaches I had been having, the bad cramps during my period, and cramps at other times were all symptoms of clap.

When I told some of my friends about it, one sister said that she had those symptoms. So she went down to the Free Peoples Health Clinic and got tested. Her test show-ed she had it too. And her story's a lot like mine! A couple of years before her husband had the symptoms (discharge) but they had gone away before he bothered to get checked. (Remember the symptoms can go away, the disease doesn't.) What really surprised my friend was that her marriage blood test came out O.K. But that's a blood test for syphillis. Syphillis is a separate disease and people can have clap and not syph, or syph and not clap, or both at once.

The reason that we're so naive about V.D. (like my friend and I were), especially clap, is because most doctors are more concerned with making money than curing diseases. So if we were properly educated and aware there would-n't be V.D. epidemics and doctors wouldn't make a lot of bread off the people. And also a lot of doctors just don't care whether we get the clap or not, so they won't give all the necessary tests. Like one doctor told me he was taught that "syph is a killer, the clap is a nusiance." Maybe to doctors, but clap can lead to urinary infections, sterility and brain damage. Since the doctors don't care we've got to educate ourselves about V.D. and other prob-lems concerning our health, and begin to set up free med--ical clinics, like the Black Panther clinic, Young Lords clinic, Young Patriots clinic, and Fritzi Englestein Free Peoples Health Clinic. We must do this to care for all our sisters and brothers.

But even with these revolutionary clinics sometimes we might get uptight or embarrassed about V.D. We have no reason to be hung up about our sexuality. The germ that causes clap or syph isn't any nastier than the germ that causes strep throat. So its important to stress that we can deal with the problem by educating ourselves and others to recognize the symptoms and to get proper treatment. If we get it we've got to tell anyone we might have given it to--not like one chump I heard about who thinks he's cool because he's got clap and screws all the sisters he can. (Some sisters are liable to deal with this chump.)

Its up to us to get rid of this disease by any means neces-sary. Because it's not easy for socialistic peoples' medi-cine to exist in fascist America, the free health clinics have trouble getting the penicillin to treatall of our peo--ple. The city refuses to give the penicillin to the clinics and its very expensive to buy. So people should try to use what they can, like the city V.D. clinic, but we've also got to make sure we get treated properly! We must all de-mand that. The free clinics recognize this problem and and are moving to correct this situation as rapidly as they can. "If necessary we'll steal, learn, or kill the pigs to get what we need to cure the peoples' illness."

REVOLUTIONARY HEALTH FOR REVOLUTIONARY FIGHTERS. ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

	MEN	WOMEN
SYMPTOMS	• painful urinating; discharge	• sometimes discharge, cramps, heavy or painful periods, (symptoms don't always show on a woman)
TESTS	• gram stain • prostate rub - to discharge germs from the prostate gland into the urine • urine culture - to find out if the germs are the variety that are very hard to get rid of	• gram stain • chocolate agar culture • Thayer-Martin culture is the best but is hard to get - expensive • pelvic exam to check tubes
TREATMENT	• 2.4 million units of procaine penicillin at one time • tetracycline if you are allergic to penicillin one shot and then pills for one week	• 4.8 million units of procaine penicillin at one time • tetracycline if you are allergic to penicillin one shot and then pills for one week

FOLLOW--UP IS VERY IMPORTANT'. HAVE A RECHECK!

One week after shots have RECHECK
3 weeks after shot have VDRL (blood test for syphlis)
2 months after that have a 2nd VDRL
DO NOT HAVE INTERCOURSE', DO NOT DRINK, AND DO NOT TAKE ANY DRUGS UNTIL YOU TEST OUT O.K.
OTHERWISE THE PENICILLIN WON'T WORK AT ALL.

Rising Up Angry is cooperating with the Black Panther Party in providing free transportation for all parents, relatives and friends to visit their loved ones held captive in prisons, jails, reformatories, "homes" throughout the State of Illinois.

We want people to observe the notorious conditions at these institutions, to see the prisons in operation, and to go to various prison officials and let them know that the people are watching, that things have changed. The actions of these correction officials will no longer be hidden in the darkness or unawareness, but will be exposed in the light of political consciousness by the people

Contact Rising Up Angry if you want to visit someone, or if you want to help let others know about this program. Rides can be arranged to St. Charles, Sheridan, Vandalia, Menard, Joliet, Pontiac, and house and other places.
